Around the Clock With Little David

Published by the Newswriting Classes of Holy Name High School
Cleveland, Ohio

Foreword . . .

In years to come as we think back on some big moments we've encountered in going "Around the Clock with 'Lil David," we'll muse over them, laugh over them; and maybe even evoke a little tear over them.

First, we relive those classes from 9:00 to 2:30 . . . "Hard at Work!"

We complained of homework, thrilled at hearing our name on the Honor Roll, bit off all our fingernails over tests, took our A's home to show the family. . . .

Then we'll remember what went on at Holy Name after hours, the clubs and fun!

Some of us attended Mother Seton League meetings on Wednesdays, others trotted out to Orchestra practice or to Band. Newswriters worked and snacked in the Staff Room, acolytes reviewed solemn ceremonies in church.

We thrilled at dressing, after hours, in a frilly formal, or in casual clothes for a juke box dance.

In our memory book, too, we'll be interested in the pages about sports: "Slingshots, 1953!"

May all of those hours bring Little David, 1000 strong, to Heaven.

Our Archbishop

Close to the hearts of every Clevelander is the Most Reverend Edward F. Hoban, Archbishop Bishop of Cleveland.

The interest he has shown in Catholic education has helped Holy Name and the other high schools to prepare their students better for the adult Catholic life they will live after they leave the shelter of school.

Our Reverend Bishop, whose sympathetic understanding and high ideals are manifested in the deep interest he shows for the welfare of the souls entrusted to his care, celebrates his Golden Jubilee as a priest this year.

Our Pastor

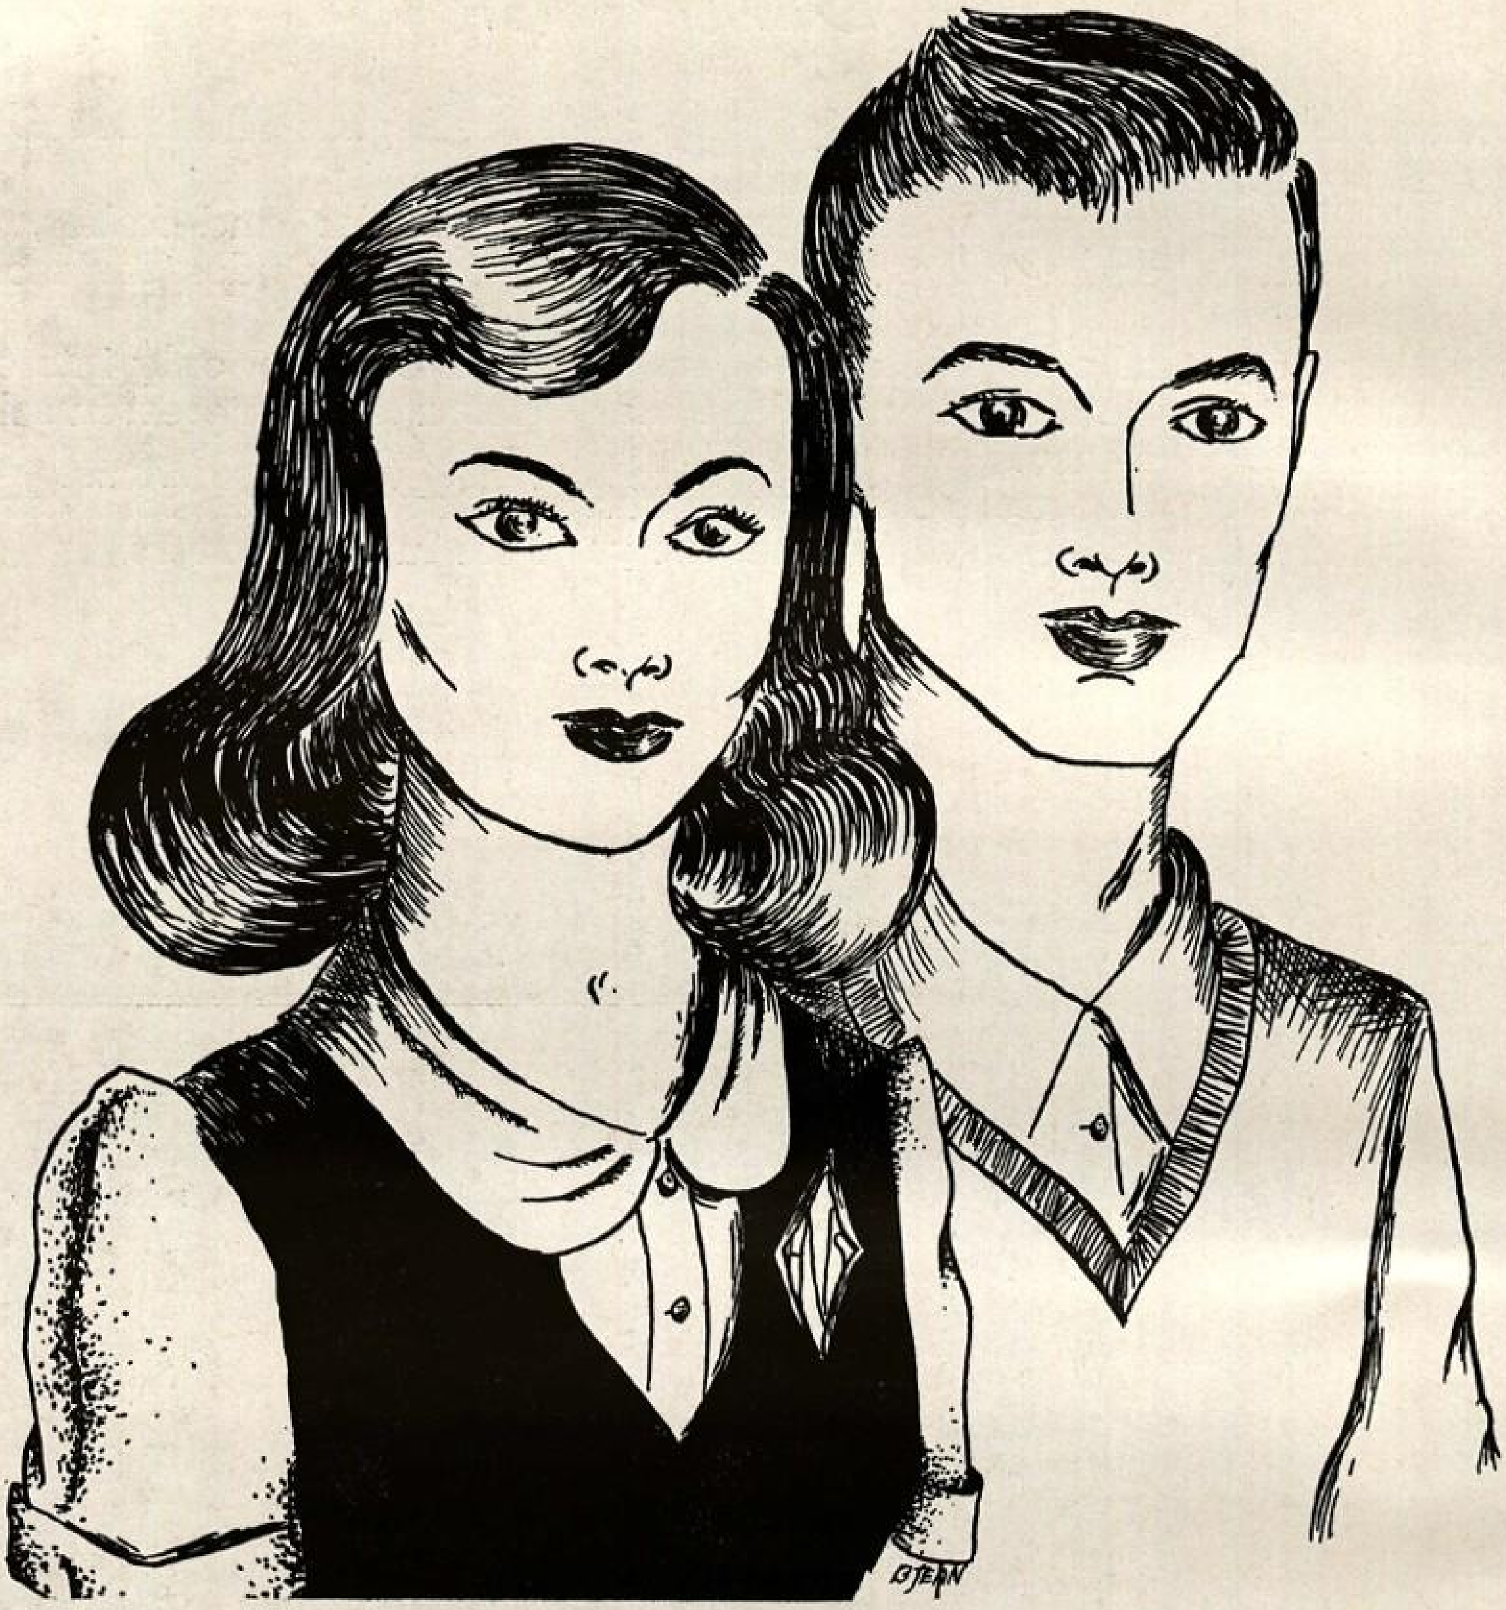
To each of these in turn he has been friend, counselor and father, always ready with a cheerful smile and a helpful hand to guide the students in moral and spiritual matters.

Holy Name's pastor and president of the high school is not only interested in the spiritual welfare of his children but he also takes a deep interest in scholastic and extracurricular activities.

As we make our way around the clock with Lil' David in our '53 "Namer" we find that Monsignor McDonough has set the pace for future Namers.



DEDICATION: TO LITTLE DAVID AND CO.

For you, Namers, this book was written. It has been dedicated and assembled especially for, you. Why, the entire theme points to you Namers!

You come in all shapes and sizes and forms. Maybe you're a Monsignor with a rusty cocker spaniel trailing in your path. Or perhaps you're a Freshman, still not quite sure where the Biology Lab or Journalism Room are located.

You lift your voices loud in assemblies and fervently during hymns at Mass. You show up on the football field with a never-say-die determination against the bigger guys. You're at home marching in green uniforms, with a tuba or slim flute. You're eager, optimistic, and Christian in your thinking.

Yes. Lil' David, you're good stuff, and wherever you go you'll bear the mark of a Namer. Upon graduation day you'll leave Holy Name a finished product of this philosophy.

So, this book is for you and about you. We dedicate our '53 Namer to Little David!

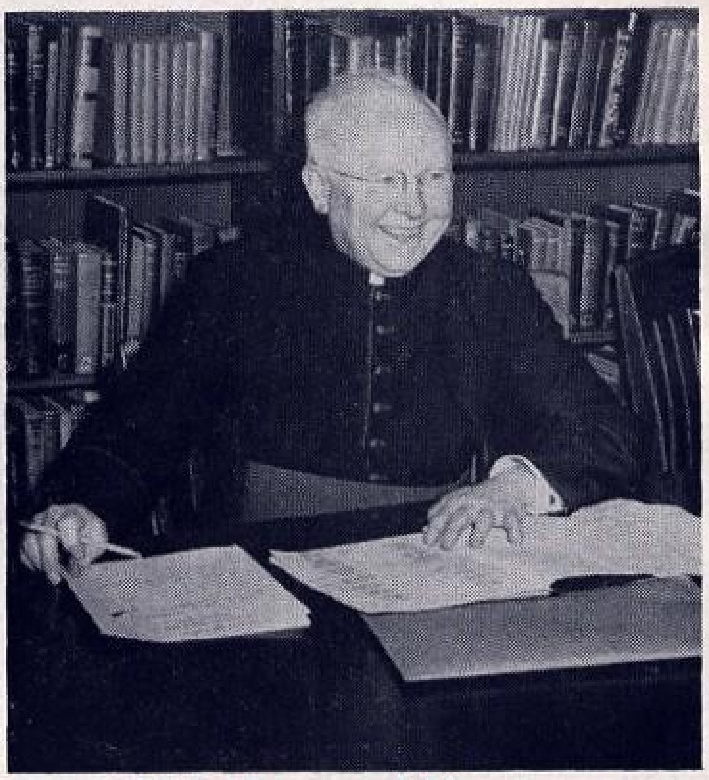
OUR HOLY NAME PRIESTS

"Go forth and teach all nations," was the command given by Christ to the Apostles, and so our priests, through their teaching and instructions, practice an apostolate at Holy Name. Name.

Their fine example has given Namers the recipe for happiness in this world and in the next.

In years to come Namers will always remember their cooperation and willingness to help them in their school problems.

As we make our way "Around the Clock with Little David" we realize how largely our priests figure in our school lives: giving rally talks, directing Athletics and the Band; teaching religion; sponsoring Bazaar work; forgiving our sins in the Confessional and remembering our intentions at the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass.



Right Reverend Monsignor
Charles McDonough

Father Albert Karper
Father James Hughes

Father Francis Osborne

Relatively new at Holy Name, Sister Francis Anna, as principal of the largest coeducational school in Cleveland, inevitably finds many trying problems which arise for her judgment.

All of these she has met with justice and sympathy. Her winning smile and helpful hand are always ready . . .

As we make our way around the clock with Little David, we realize that Mother Seton's Sisters of Charity play a big part in the lives of every real Namer.

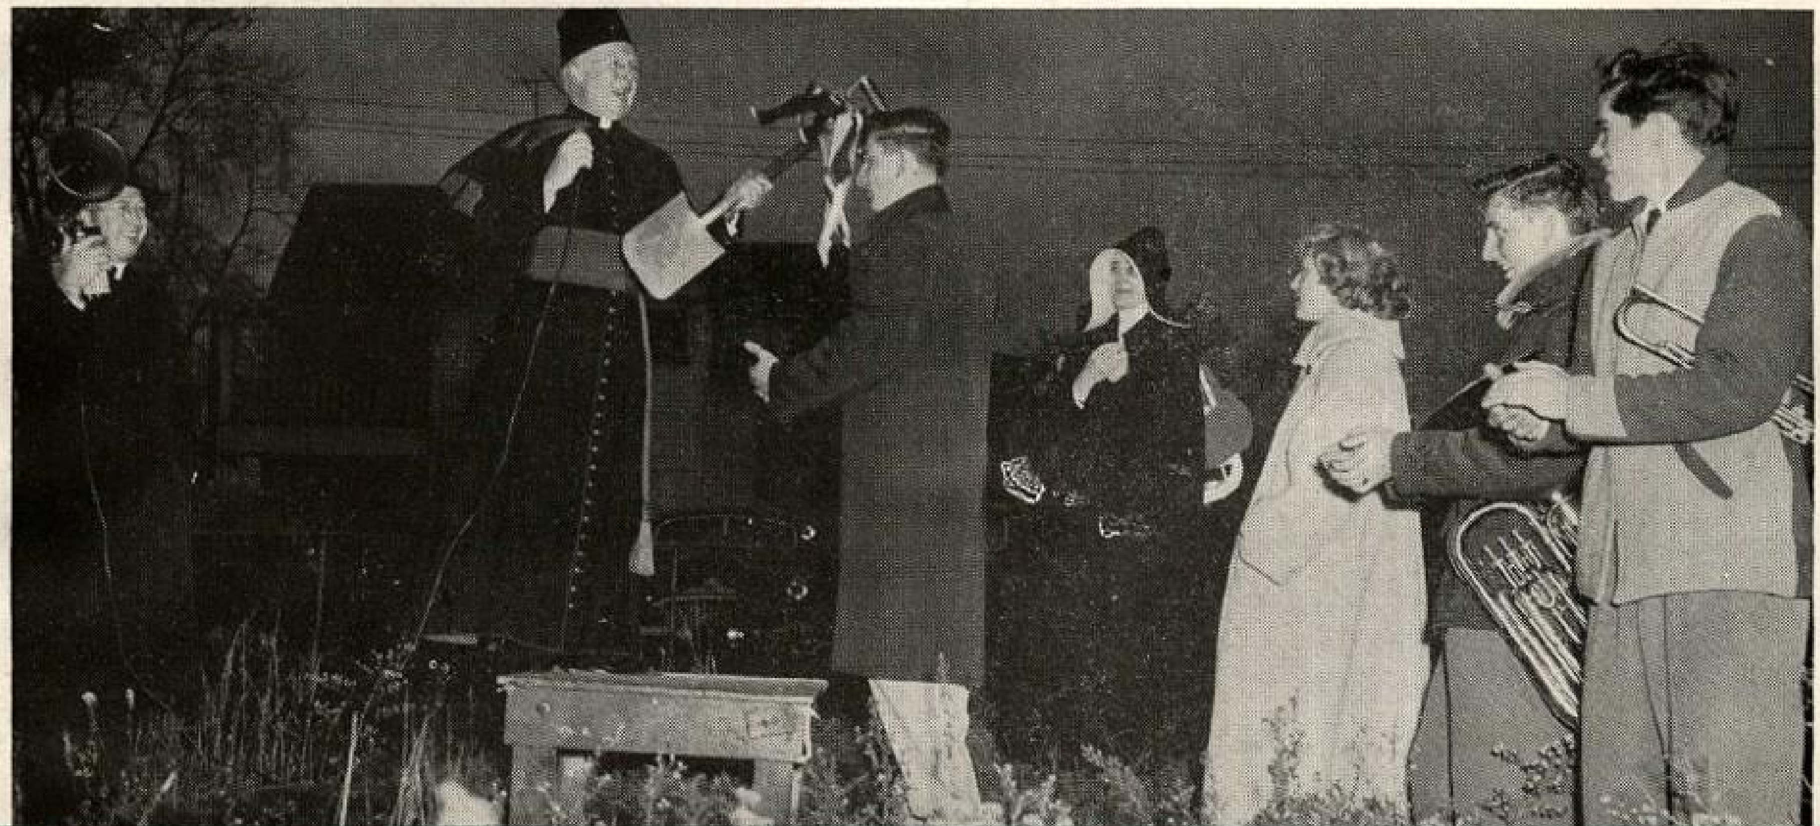
Never too busy to stop and listen to any problem or sorrow we may wish to bring them, the Sisters are real friends.

Words cannot express the gratitude we feel for their help.

OUR PRINCIPAL AND ALL OUR SISTERS

Breaking ground for the new convent, November, 1952



They chose Christopher careers!

Top Left: "Coach Heglaw" to the boys whom he coaches, and "Mr. Heglaw" to the student body, and particularly to Seniors whom he teaches in Civics class and councils with sympathy in vocational guidance.

Second: Mr. Joseph Lesko. History teacher to the under classman; capable coach of the basketball players, and Heglaw's little helper when it comes to football.

Third: Mr. Marlo Termini, a new member of Holy Name's faculty but an old Holy Namer, he is gym instructor to the boys, and coaches Freshman football and basketball.

Fourth: Miss Frances Nugent, veteran of three years, teaches speech to Juniors and Seniors, and English to underclassmen. She directed the Christmas play put on by the Senior speech class.

Bottom Row: Mrs. Ruth Seitz, an integral part of Holy Name, teaches eighth grade, and is a real friend in need to everyone. Miss Jacqueline Prechtel teaches Freshmen the value of "X" very prudently, and sees the students again when they are Juniors and instructs them in how to find X in advanced algebra. The Annual went to press too early to secure a picture of Mrs. Ruth Short, girls' gym teacher. Her arrival was looked forward to by many girls interested in athletics, and she keeps them stepping by her straight forward way.

FIGHT SONG

ALL hail, Holy Name,
With loyal hearts we proclaim
That we will serve the Green and White.
Your Spirit, we know,
Will lead us on as we go
And guide our youthful steps aright.
Then down through the years
We will re-echo your cheers
And through our efforts bring you fame,
For though it be our best
It's not too good
For dear old Holy Name!

"The School is the Thing"
Will be the motto we'll sing
Though it be triumph or defeat
Let this be our aim,
To win for you, Holy Name,
And lay our laurels at your feet.
And ever 'twill be
A cry of clean victory
Which will be heard throughout the fight,
For Holy Name than ever "Onward Press"
Beneath the Green and White!

STEP . . . Pause . . . Step . . . Pause . . . at this slow deliberate pace the Seniors make their final appearance as the class of '53.

To the majestic strains of "Pomp and Circumstance," the graduates march to the altar to receive their diplomas. As they turn to walk down the aisle, bits of the past flash through their minds . . . autographing friendship pictures . . . returning to church after football games.

Cheering the baseball and basketball teams on . . . hours spent in the music portable for Band, Orchestra and Glee Club . . . receiving the long-awaited class rings . . . making the last school retreat their best . . . going to general Mass and Communion on First Fridays . . . hurrying to the weekly rallies . . . arranging for formal dress for the Balls and Prom.

Step . . . Pause . . . Step . . . Pause . . . holding their memories close to their hearts, the graduates step out of the doors of the Church into the open, beckoning arms of the future.

HN LISTS RELIGION CLASS FIRST

They know, too, that it is the most important thing in their student lives.

Christian social living is stressed in most HN classes, but the religion class is the place par excellence for the teaching of Christian principles and the Christ-way of life which makes for happiness.

Don Cozzens, Junior High, (above) wearing a surplice and stole, gives an explanation of the Sacrament of Holy Orders, assisted by Ken Nickels. Elaine Di Rosa and Mary C. Hagberg take notes for a further discussion.

Fifth Commandment

NO MATTER WHEN IT'S SCHEDULED

Anna Deuel, Mary Profancik, Tom Stadnik, Lois Reynolds and Tom Conroy (above) conduct a discussion on the Fifth Commandment in Sister Eucheria's class. They seem happy despite their topics of homicide, and other types of murder.

Right: Father George Budimlik (known to Namers as Father George) teaches religion at Holy Name, though he is an assistant at Assumption Parish, Brecksville. Father George travels 12 miles in sunshine, rain or snow to come to Holy Name four days a week.

Other priests teaching religion on the campus are all Holy Namers: Father Karper has Senior religion; Father Hughes, Sophomore religion; and Father Osborne, Freshman religion.

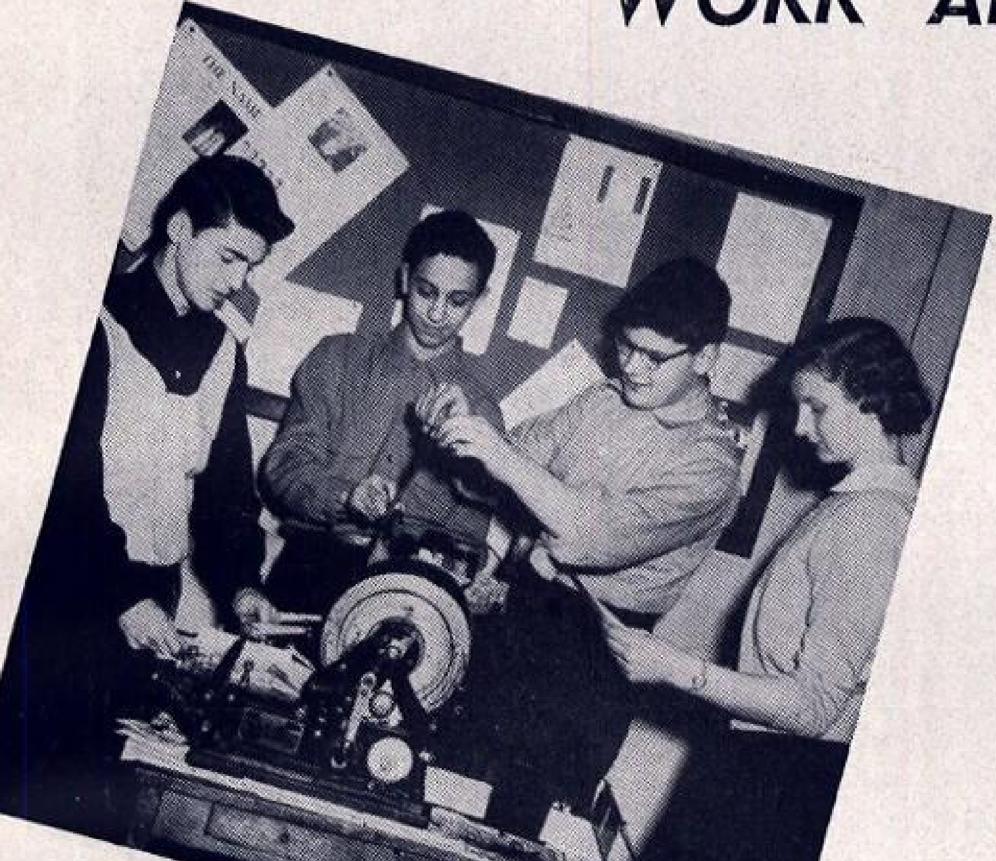
WORK AND PLAY



"Let's speak up for Christianity!" See the motto on the board? HN Galley Slaves feel it's their precious privilege to "speak for Christianity" through every issue of the paper, on each page of the year book.

PREPARING FOR HOME RESPONSIBILITIES

Exciting new skills are taught by Sister Kevin in the Home Economics Portable, skills which will be used by students in the future.

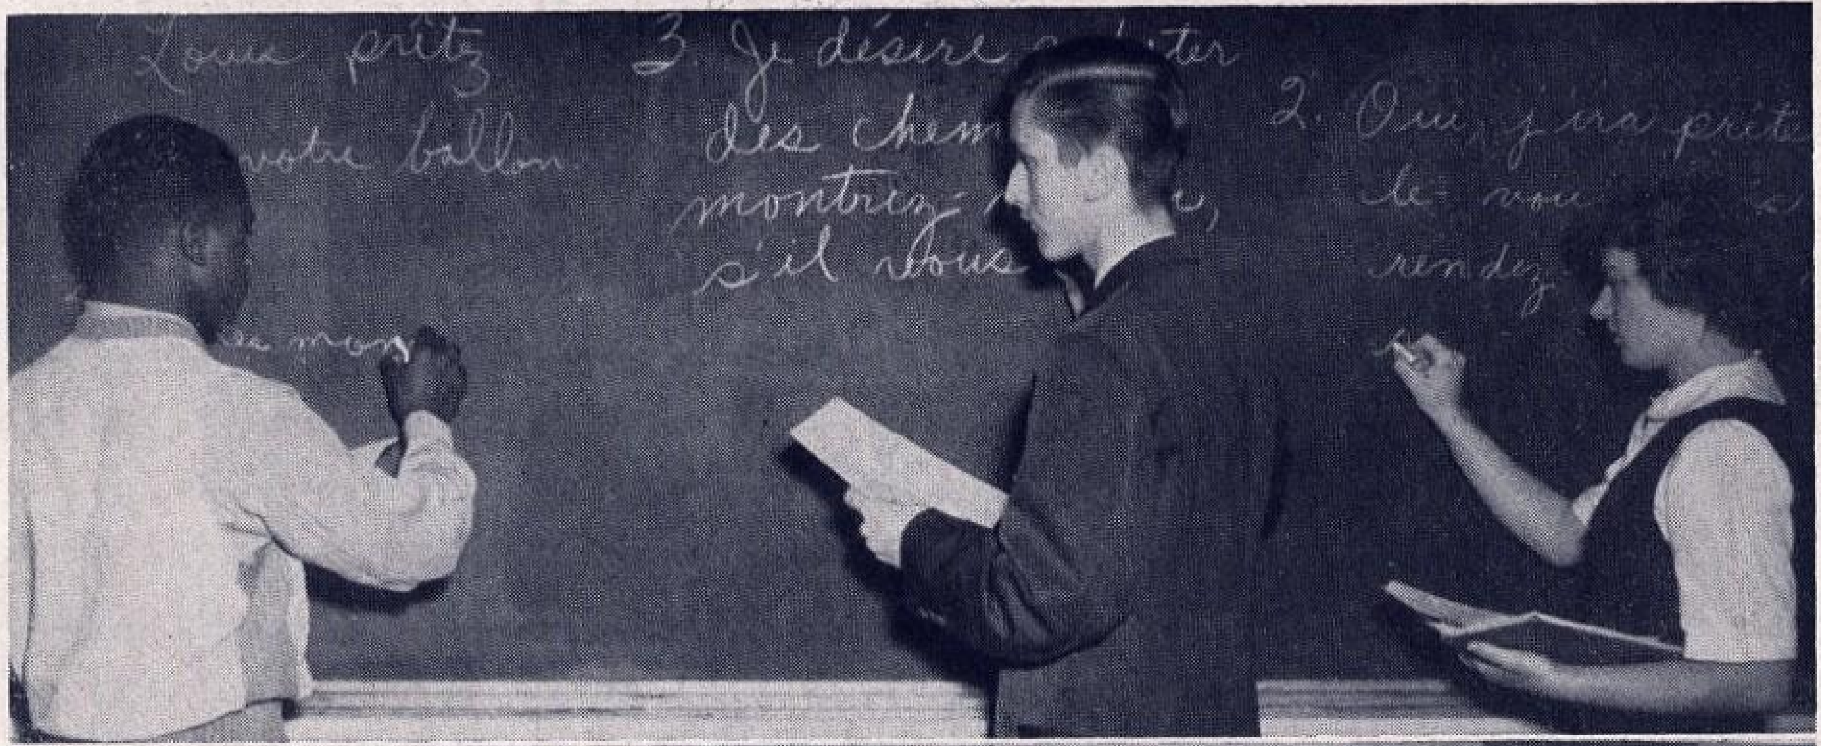
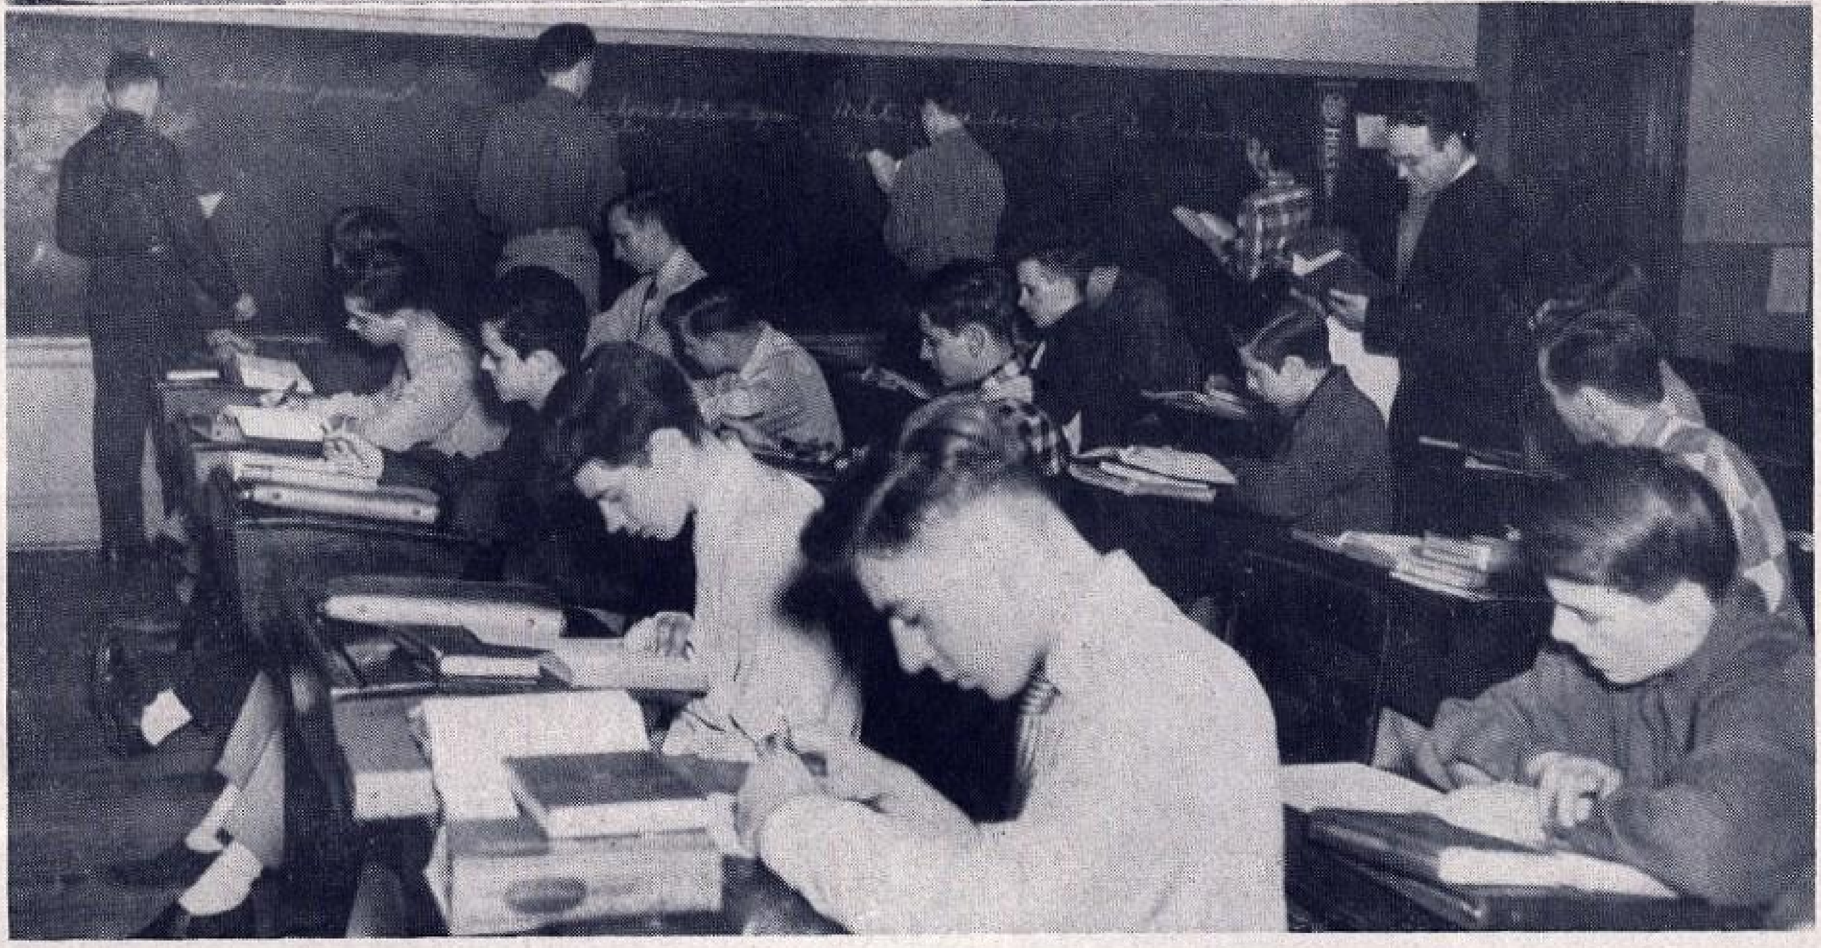
A STUDY OF LANGUAGES MELTS BARRIERS





Through their study of French, Latin and Spanish, HN linguists acquire a greater understanding of the arts, culture, and people in foreign countries.

One of the reasons why civilizations have progressed so rapidly during the last century is that the barrier of distance and languages has been diminished, and in some instances even destroyed.

Telephone, airplanes, and telegraph make all people neighbors, but these devices would be futile without a common bond of spech.

Below: Boys in Father Osborne's first year Latin.

Hands help keen minds produce creative work in Fine and Applied Arts classes, where producers and consumers are trained.

ART CLASSES PROVIDE LITTLE DAVID

Seniors Algird Muliolis and William Jean (left) complete a stained glass window portraying the Nativity. The window was used on Cleveland's Public Square during the Christmas holidays.

"Weaving and hooking are fun!" exclaim Sophomores Barbara Piotrowski, Marilyn Civalina, Carol Surdy, Marlene Kross, and Lois Tomasi, as they watch the patterns grow beneath their fingers.

Directed by Sister Elizabeth Louise, the art department is alert, and successful in competition.

TRIANGLE AND T SQUARE

Drafting classes are generally composed entirely of boys who wish to prepare for jobs as electrical engineers, mechanical engineers, pattern makers and building contractors.

GRAPH AND COMPASS

Though many students are afraid of Math, it undoubtedly is of practical importance in their lives now and in the future. Those who are preparing to be nurses, aviators, math teachers, engineers, and businessmen after completing high school and college, see the value of their daily math class, but they sometimes fail to realize that every smoothly running household demands a knowledge of the third "r."

TYPISTS, BOOKKEEPERS, SECRETARIES,

All day long, typewriters click away, and comptometers, Ediphones, and other business machines are being investigated.

PREPARE NOW FOR JOB IN FUTURE

Jim has evidently made an error which might mean hours of extra work for him. Perhaps with the help of the adding machine at his elbow his books will balance, and then he can continue to complete his assignment set. Bookkeeping demands efficiency and concentration plus knowledge. Sister Rose Alma hopes that the forty-one students in the class will become good accountants, as this ability will not only be useful in office work, but in keeping an everyday household budget.

NO CONFLICT BETWEEN GOD AND SCIENCE

Science and faith cannot contradict each other because God is the author of both. Tom Muldoon, Donald Kozlowski, Pat Boylan, Michael Renella and Tom McGinty. above, physicists under the direction of Sister Angela Mary, compute the coefficient of linear exansion of an aluminum rod.

HOLY NAME'S OWN PHILHARMONIC

These same musicians, though tied to a heavy schedule, frequently find time to play with the Band and take part in choral groups, and always manage homework and fun.

Two Orchestra offerings, "Blue Tango" and "Syncopated Clock," prove to be the favorite selections of the student body. During the year the Orchestra entertains by accompanying the Senior operetta, and the St. Cecilia and St. Patrick programs.

FLOODS CAMPUS WITH MELODY, SONG

A lifted baton, hushed expectancy in the auditorium, a smooth flow of beautiful melody, and a Holy Name Orchestra concert is underway.

Before a performance like this there are weeks of practice.

Top: Here are Jack Newell, Gerry Stankewicz, Kathleen Mahoney, Bill Jean, Ed Schirra. These students compose the first string quintet of Holy Name.

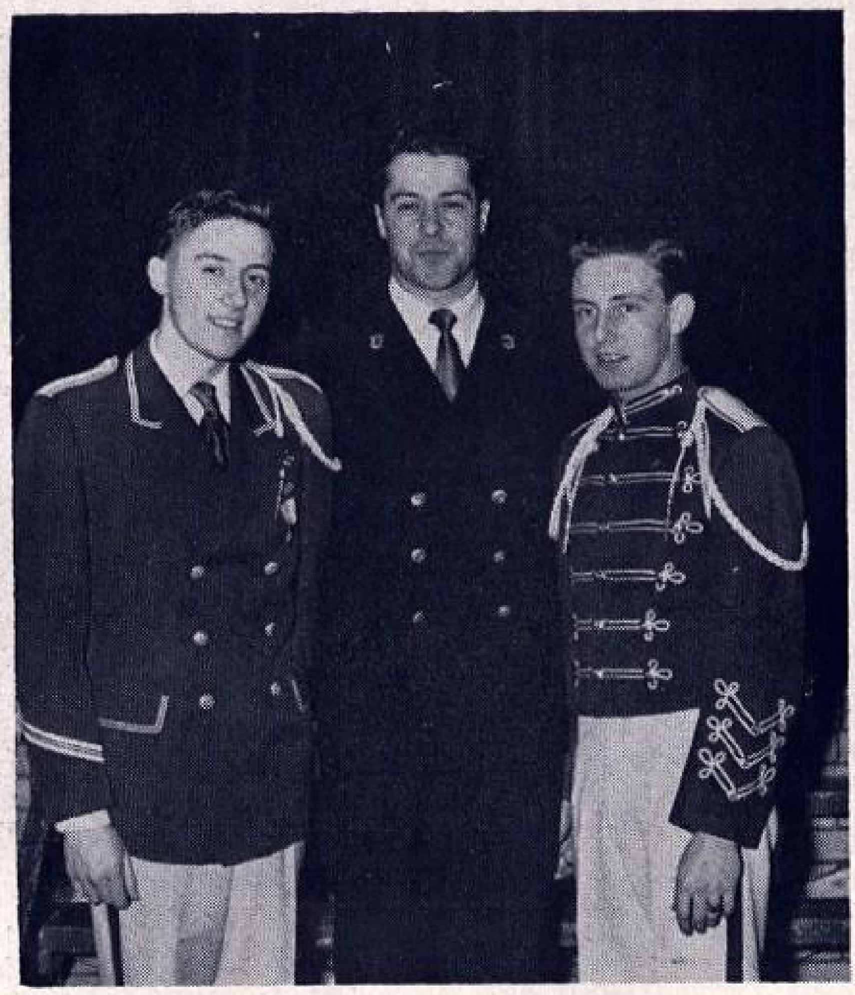
HERE'S A TOAST TO NEWBURGH'S FINEST

"All Hail, Holy Name, with loyal hearts we procaim, that we will serve the Green and White!"

Holy Name Band strikes up this familiar tune, and each time our emotions are stirred by the melody. It takes only two measures of the beloved school song to make students and alumni visualize a football field with the Green Wave in action, a rally, or a concert which swings the Holy Name Band into action and fills us with pride for our Alma Mater.

Sixty students compose the 1953 Band. Seniors Carl Lewis, Jim Powers, Waltina Mroczek, Donna Kirchner, Tom Grams and John Abraham have been members for four years, and Jackie Bunch and Joan Houska, have been three year members.

THE GREEN WAVE'S MARCHING MUSICIANS



Orchids to the Green Wave Drum Majors, Carl Lewis and Ray Shabel, for their leadership and baton twirling, and to "Little Margie," petite addition to the Band this year, from the elementary school (Page 74, bottom).

Mr.. Robert Pattie directs HN Band students. It is under his leadership and direction that the Green Wave musicians are rated tops among the Cleveland high school bands.

Credit goes to all the green-clad musicians for their fine team work, for the snappy precision of their marching, and the spirited music of their songs.

"I'll show ye how to dance!" exclaims the old gentleman, (right) as he goes into a jig step at a party sponsored by the Leaguers for the old folks.

Other activities not pictured include feeding and working with children at Rose Mary Home for Crippled Children, and wheeling crippled veterans at Crile to novena services on Wednesday.

IN HIS NEEDY ONES, OLD AND YOUNG

Under the enthusiastic leadership of Georgianna Woodhall, Eileen Flanigan, Therese Horan and Shirley Adams, the local Seton League accomplished countless acts of Christian Charity.

Sister Mary Robert is faculty advisor.

'TO RESTORE ALL THINGS TO CHRIST'

When the mournful cries of millions of anguished sufferers throughout the world touches the hearts of Holy Namers, they turn to Sister Rose Alma and her efficient Mission leaders of the local CSMC group for an outlet to their charity.

"Go ye, therefore, and teach all nations." HN missioners take this command literally, and try to fulfill it in a dozen little ways.

Scavenger hunts for old rosaries and cancelled stamps are sponsored regularly by HN Missioners. The rosaries are repaired for inmates of State Hospital.

SOCIAL EVENT OF THE YEAR -- THE PROM

Prom Day finally looms, with all the glitter of the momentous time. A girl runs through the rooms of her home, as the family in self-defense resorts to an evening's entertainment of television.

Pincurls bobbing from her pretty head, she fusses and talks while her formal is given a last-minute touching up, and stockings are carefully inspected again for runs.

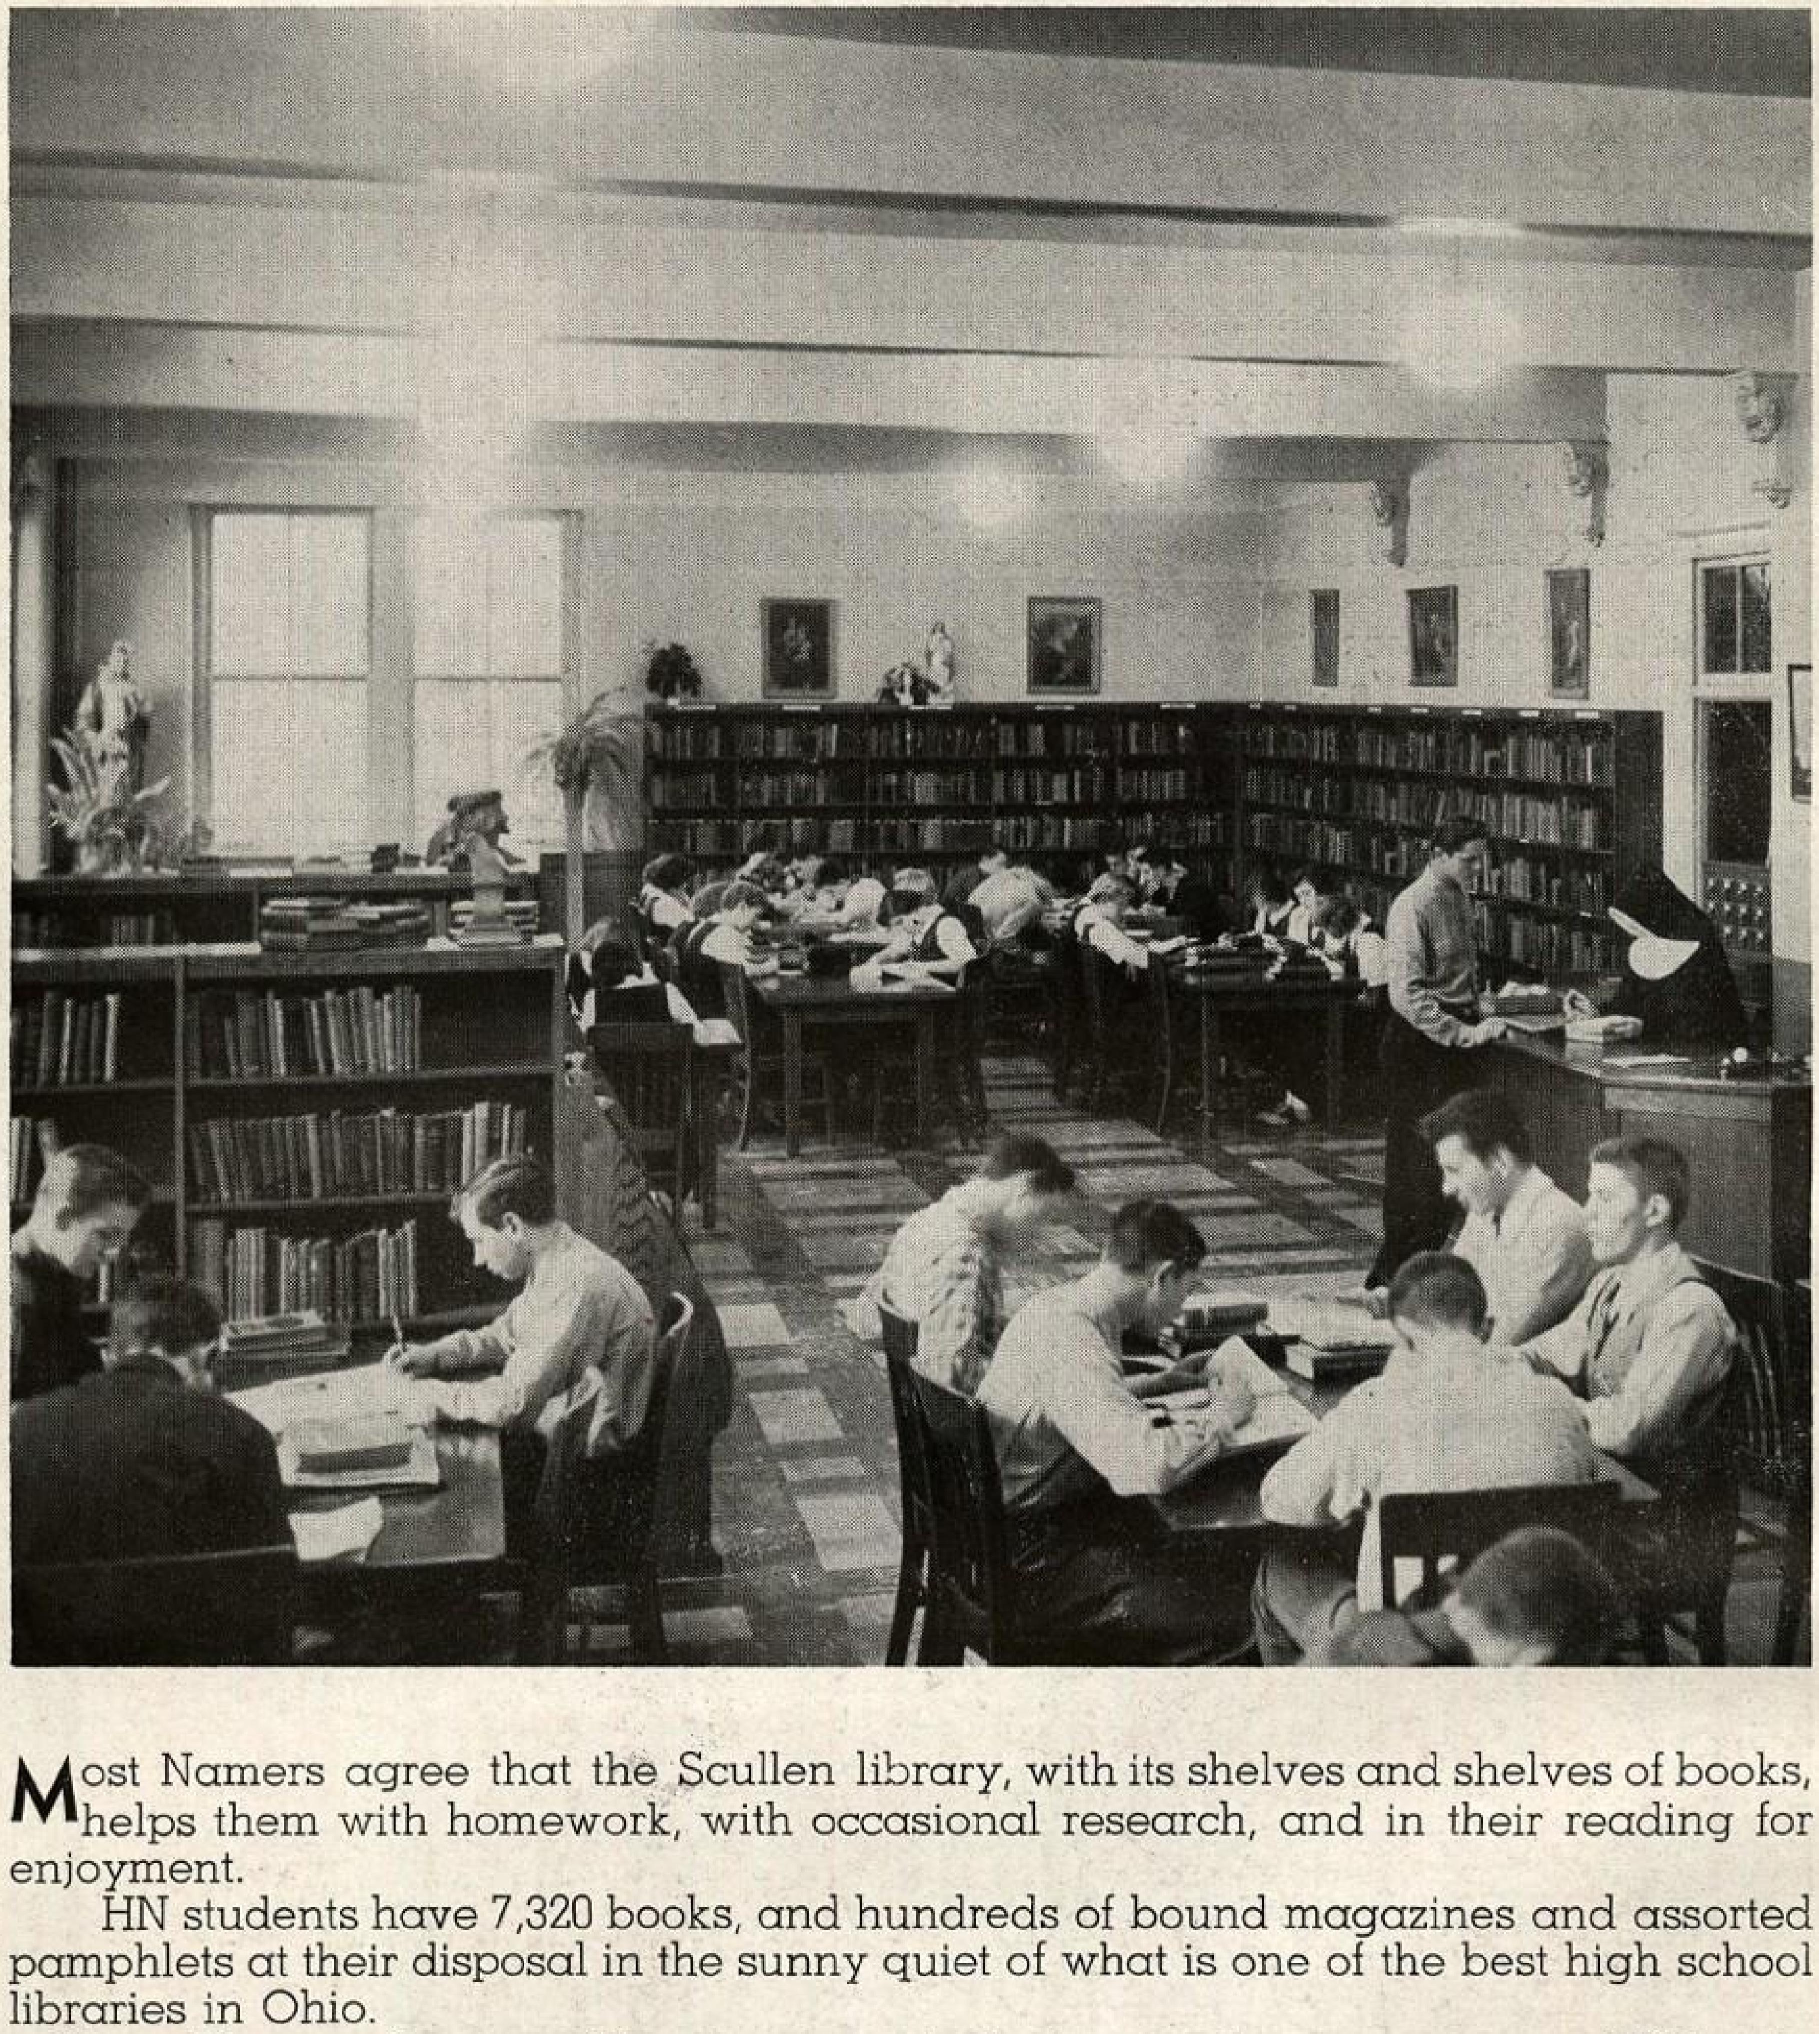
In the home of her escort, meanwhile, a young gentleman struggles with a stiff collared tux, combs his hair to that perfect wave, inspects the shine of his shoes and then, to relax, sits down to watch a TV program.

Before this gallant knight realizes it's 8 P. M., the time to leave for the home of his date.

"Gosh!" he cries. "Please help me straighten my tie! This collar is choking me! Good Gosh, the flowers! Are they Ok? Mom, ask Dad if there's gas in the car!!"

But after all these headaches and hurrying, everything is forgotten when he arrives at his best girl's home, and they drive off in his Chariot to the glitter of the Prom. Below: The Coronation of Beth Gallagher in '52.

CAMERA PRESERVES VARIED MEMORIES



Most Namers agree that the Scullen library, with its shelves and shelves of books, helps them with homework, with occasional research, and in their reading for enjoyment.

HN students have 7,320 books, and hundreds of bound magazines and assorted pamphlets at their disposal in the sunny quiet of what is one of the best high school libraries in Ohio.

Sister Thomas Aquinas, librarian, reports that every day an average of 72 books are taken, and daily hundreds of students use library materials for a period or so. Reference books in particular do good service for each successive group which comes in.

Above: HN students taking a study hall in the library, where the quiet atmosphere provides a place to think.

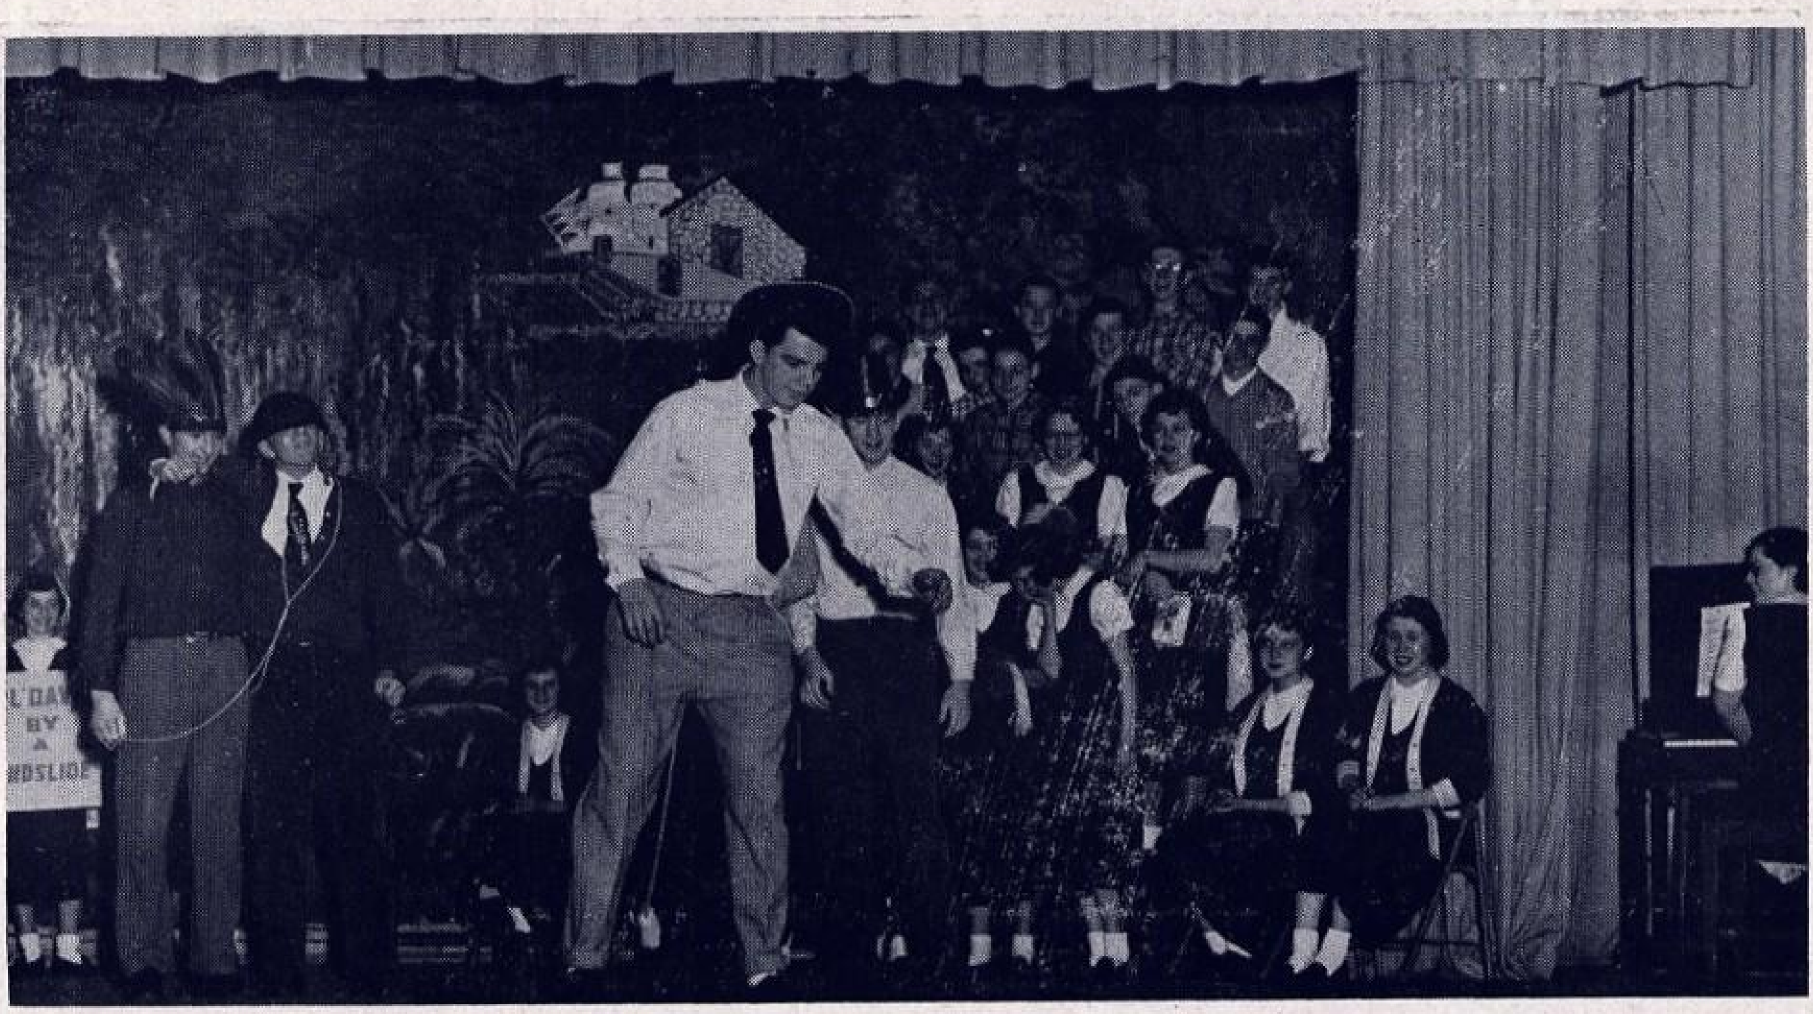
KEEP LITTLE DAVID'S SPIRIT SOARING



Weekly rallies bolster the spirit of HN's team members as cheers of the Green Wave student body vibrate through the gym. The stirring cries of the cheerleaders, humorous skits, and the superior oratory of Holy Name's priests provide a satisfying break from Friday's classes.

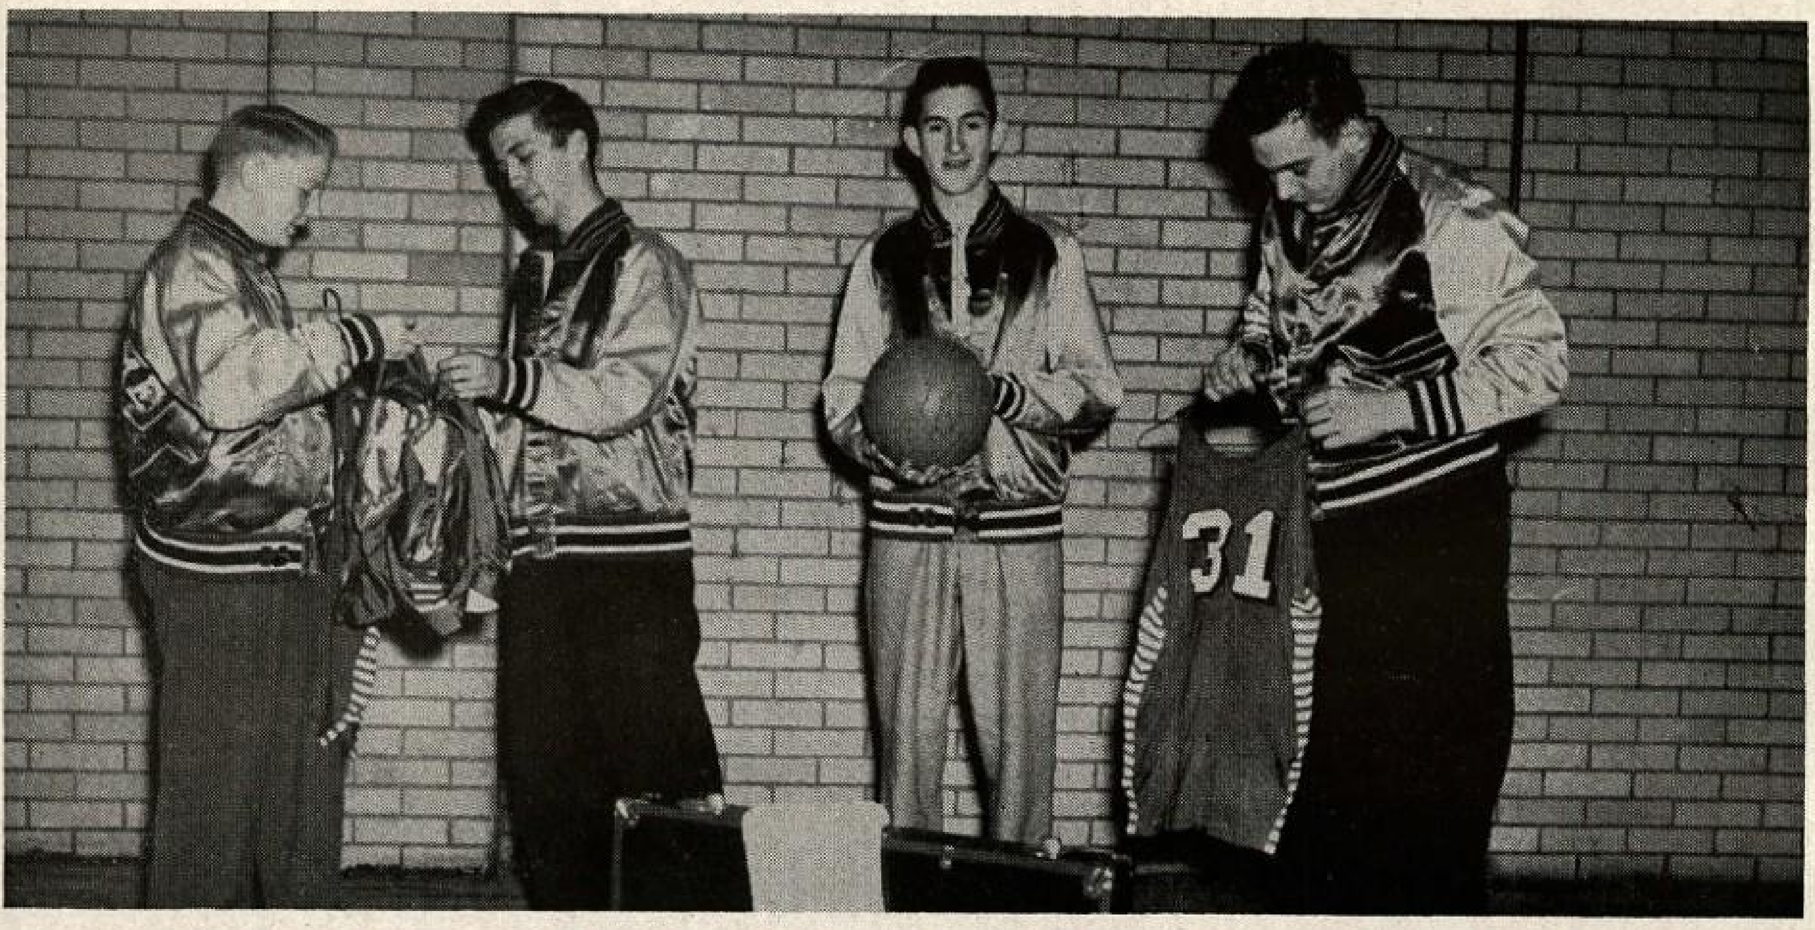
MANAGERS, RAH BOYS DO GOOD JOB



"Big Green . . . Big White . . !" As the cheer echoes through the air, the Green Wave's cheerleaders romp about arousing that old Holy Name spirit. Proudly displaying their Green and White, Lil' David's megaphone men help supply that "something extra" which carries the team to victory.

Also sacrificing many of their spare hours are the student managers, constantly with the team and ready with the first aid kit, towels and warm jackets.

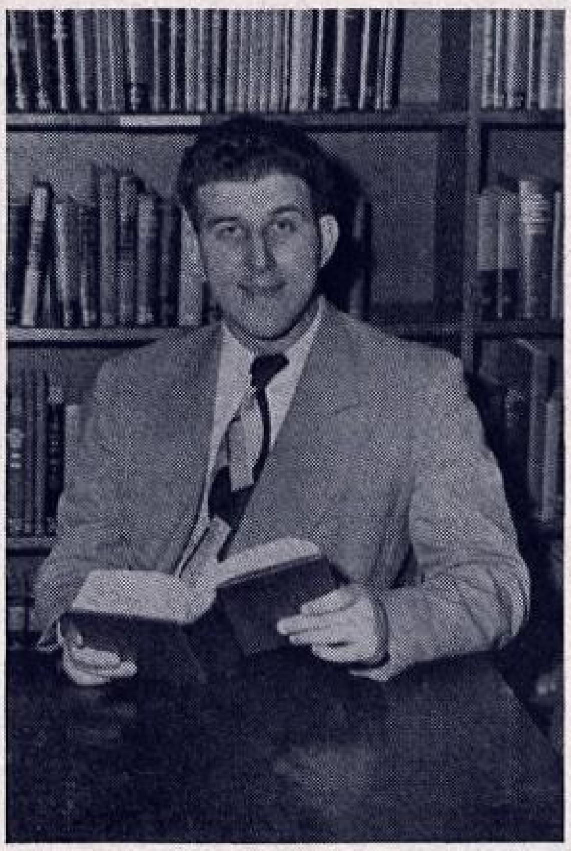
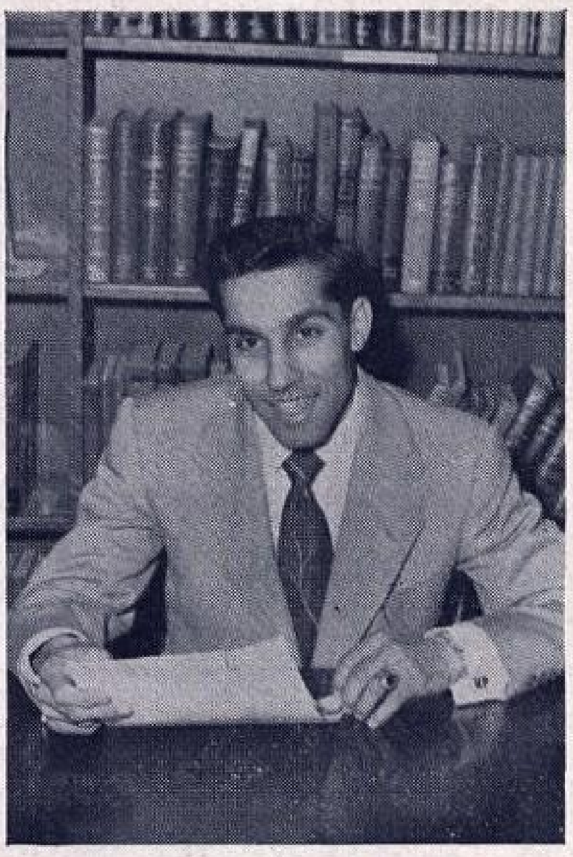
COACHES, FATHER HUGHES GET ORCHIDS

Mr. Heglaw



Mr. Lesko



Mr. Termini

Inspiring and leading Holy Name's teams in every athletic contest are the "Big Three," Coaches Heglaw, Lesko and Termini.

When summer turns to fall, Ed Heglaw's musclemen take to the gridiron in quest of the Senate crown. Showing versatility, Coach Heglaw also pilots the JV's on the hardwood, and then assists in the baseball department.

Joe Lesko holds the reins of the Green Wave's Varsity cage team as the sports scene moves indoors. Being assistant backfield coach occupies Coach Lesko while the pigskin season is in progress.

HN's "Mighty Mite," Marlo Termini, puts the boys through the wringer in gym class. Mr. Termini also coaches the Frosh grid and cage teams.

Managing the Green Wave's athletic department is the task which falls on the broad shoulders of Father James Hughes.

Four years have passed since Father Hughes took the helm. Under his administration Holy Name had displayed some of the district's top gridiron, diamond and hardwood teams.

Proof of Father Hughes' executive qualities is shown by his election as president of the Senate Athletic Council this year.

Holy Name can be justly proud of its vigorous, hard-working, self-sacrificing athletic director, Father James Hughes.

SOME GRIDIRON ACTION, THRILLS'N'SPILLS,

HN's grid season reached its climatic peak when Coach Ed Heglaw's musclemen defeated Latin, 7-6, while splitting an even season with four victories, four defeats, and one tie.

Sparked by Captain Chuck Kriak, the Green Wave downed Lincoln, Marshall, Latin and West High. A victory over the West - Senate champs, St. Ignatius, seemed in the grasp of Lil' David until the final seconds, during which the Blue and Gold tied the score, 20-20.

Rolling over West High, 27 to 13, put Namers in high spirits, but the bottom fell out when South recaptured the Pig Iron Trophy with a 7-0 victory.

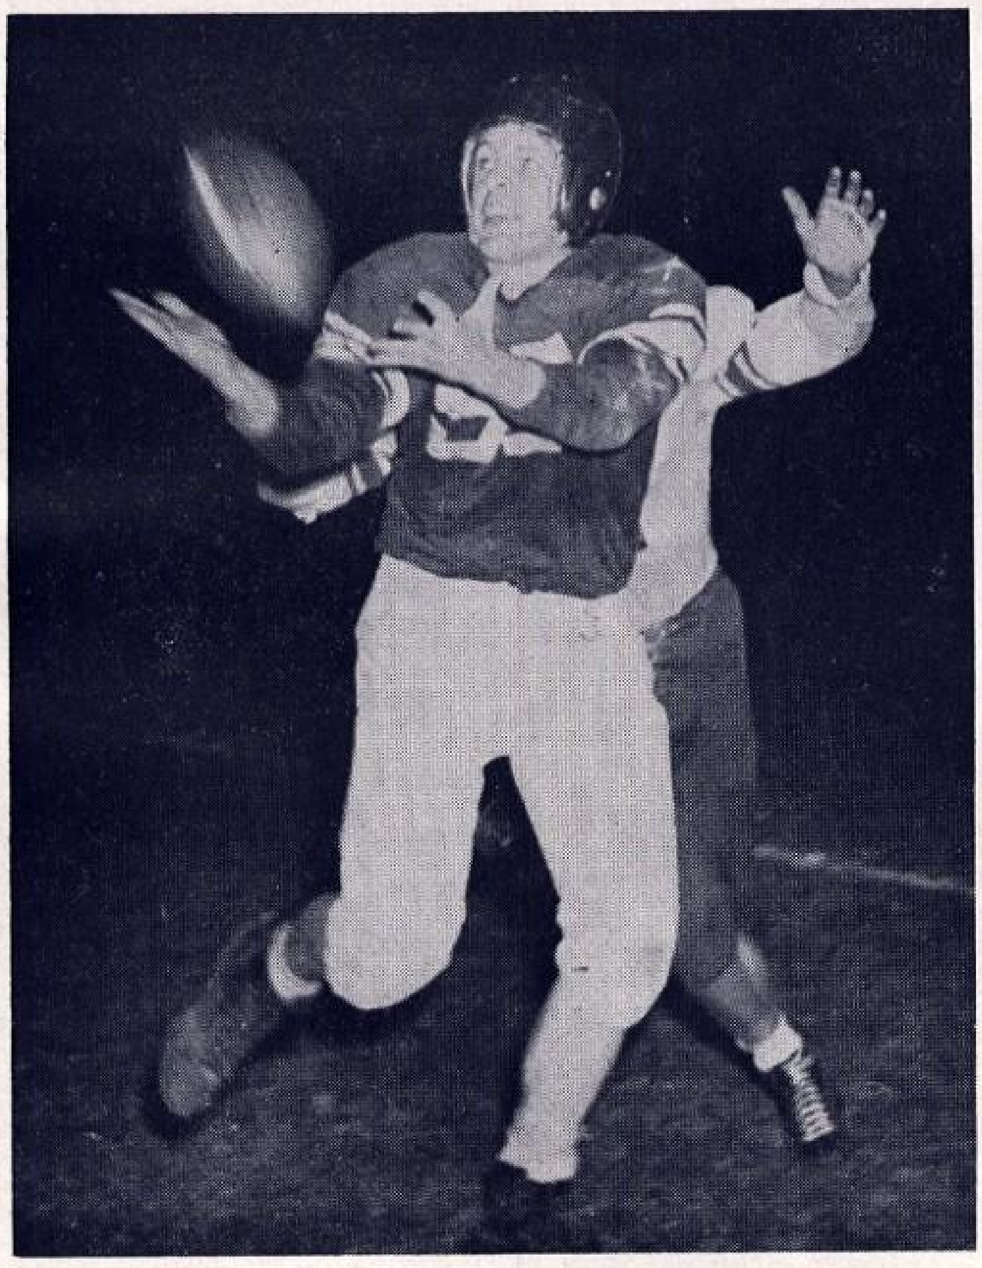
AS HEGLAWMEN CARRIED THE PIGSKIN



At the end of the season, Coach Heglaw commended the squad for its fighting spirit even though the boys suffered sone discouraging losses.

Leading until the last quarter, the Green Wave fell before the Rhodes Rams, 7-6.

A heavy downpour slowed the pace of little David's opener with Benedictine, as the Blue and White rolled up a 12-8 victory. On the brighter side, a stubborn Lincoln team fell before the Green Wave in a rugged battle, 13-7.

John Marshall also felt the wrath of the inspired Namers as HN's gridders decisioned the Lawyers, 19-13.

'HARDWOOD SEASON SUCCESSFUL'; LESKO

Dropping the first couple of Senate games put Little David out of the race. However, the team came up with a fine record of nine wins and four losses.

The first victims were Latin, Warren Harding, East High and Benedictine. Ignatius, West, and West Tech were the only Senate teams to gain victory over Little David.

VARSITY, JV's MAKE GOOD HOOP RECORDS

GYM FOR GRACE, POISE, SUPPLENESS

"Sound minds in strong bodies" is the goal of HN's physical education classes. Little David's men are under the tutorship of Marlo Termini, and the fairer sex is directed by Mrs. Ruth Short. Volleyball, tumbling, and basketball harden the muscles of Namers, and give poise and grace.

FROSH, RIPLET ATHLETES WIN HONORS

Future Varsity gridders of '56, under the able leadership of Coach Marlo Termini, split an even slate of games, winning three and losing three. Victories over St. Joseph, St. Ignatius, and the arch-rival, Benedictine, highlighted the Frosh football campaign. The HN Freshmen fought through every contest, displaying outstanding players in Frank Di Rosa and James Jaros. Freshman pigskinners, (above) assembled prior to leaving for the gridiron.

One of the fine contributions of the junior high is the eighth grade basketball team. The little Ripplets went through the regular season undefeated. By winning the league crown, the squad is to compete for the City Championship.

RIESSINGER PILOTS DIAMOND CREW

OUTDOOR LIFE LURES HARDY NAMERS

When Spring rolls around, men and maids of Holy Name turn their attention to the baseball diamond. Under Frank Riessinger, business manager of HN athletics and 20-year-veteran of coaching, the diamond men from Newburgh display their fighting Holy Name spirit.

NO SPORT ALBUM WOULD BE COMPLETE

Top Row: Soph Bob Ptacek drives in for a layup while a Warren hardwooder looks on. Bob Mandato, fleet Latin back, vainly attempts to circle right end as the Green Wave secondary moves in.

WITHOUT SOME REMINDERS LIKE THESE

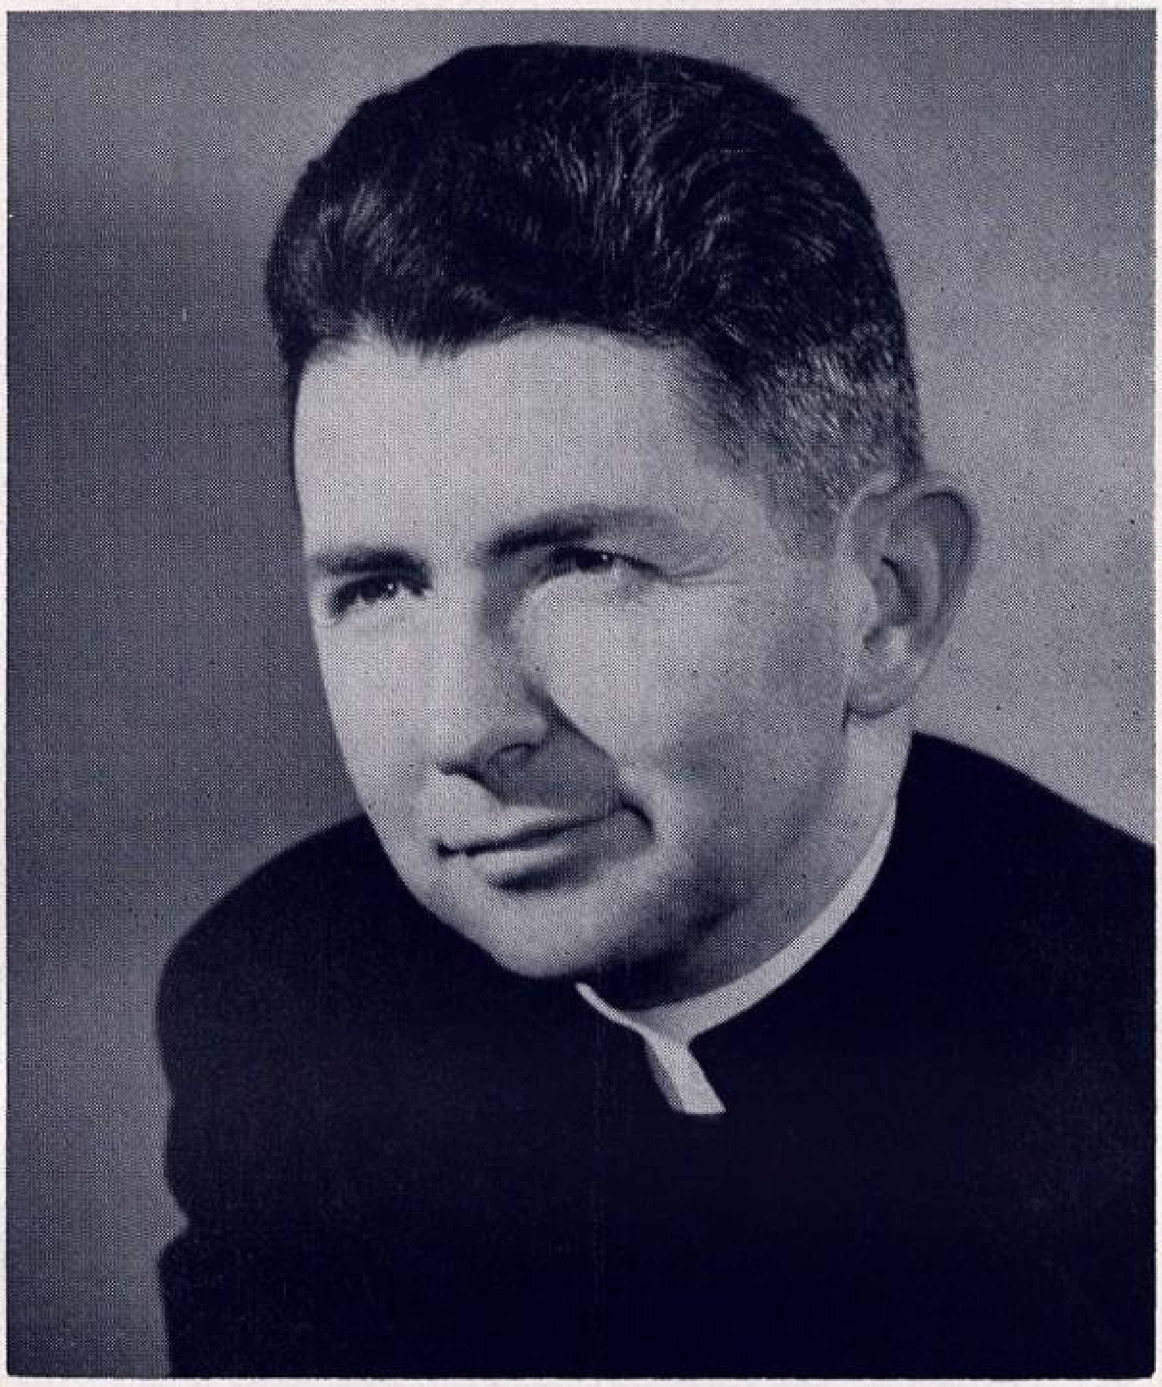
PS: DON'T FORGET THAT '53 RETREAT



Reverend Paul Hallinan

Some "quotes" from Father Hallinan . . .

In order to know Christ we must love Him, and in order to love Him we must know Him . . . If only one of you makes a decision that has been bothering you or finds an answer to your problems, I will go away feeling as though I have accomplished what I set out to do, and the Retreat will be a success . . . Is your girl a help or a hindrance? .. . . Are you an inch closer to God each day? . . . Are you a mediocre commonplace Catholic? . . . Girls form sororities for one of two reasons: they feel inferior to the rest of the people, or superior . . . What is your attitude toward children, school? . . . Do you think of your school as a precious goal? . . . Is your home a telephone station with a built-in shower? . . . After the day is over can you think back and remember anything you said which helped somebody or made someone's day happier? . . . Try to make your home a real home . . . Just think where or what you'll be in 1963.

YEARBOOK STAFF

Rose Annette Powell

Al Pinchak

Editor-in-Chief of the '53 Namer was Rose Annette Powell. Al Pinchak, champion picture cutter and sports division editor, was Rosie's unsung and unoffical but very adequate assistant.

Georgianne Woodhall (Sis) edited the Culture Section.

Don Kozlowski can be credited with the whimsical drawings distributed throughout the yearbook.

It is said, "the last shall be first" and so it was with Edward Schirra, manager of the Senior Picture Department, who was first to have his Section completed.

AND SOMEONE BEHIND THE SCENES

Teacher, counselor, and friend—all these titles we attribute to Holy Name's Sister Marie Emmanuel. Words are seemingly inadequate to tell her how much gratitude we feel toward her. Sister is a teacher of Journalism and English. This year in addition to all her labors in the Staff Room she has her own homeroom. One would think that these activities would more than suffice, but Sister also teaches two little girls their catechism several times a week.

Sister has been with Holy Name for 16 years. Those of us that had the pleasure of working with her remember many things about Sister: we recall her encouraging us in all our works . . . pointing out sensibly and kindly our rather dubious brainstorms . . . forgiving us for our silly mistakes . . . gently telling us our latest masterpiece was "slightly corny" . . . giving us two types of food—for after school sessions in the Staff Room and for thought . . . helping us keep Christian principles in mind . . . giving us the right kind of humor . . . and at all times proving that she's one of Holy Name's best liked teachers . . . Our Advisor!!

THEY PAID YOUR ANNUAL BILLS

Below: Meet four Juniors who managed the entire ad-drive, taking in $4800 in two weeks, and keeping accounts miraculously straight. They are Ruth Meyers, Joanne Nakel, Mary Cermak and Harry Uher.
